Coming Out in Red Square

Come join us on our annual Coming Out Day. We are a better Georgetown today, but there are still challenges. This event will feature a door through which students “come out” as proud LGBTQ Hoyas and Allies. Be sure to pick up and wear your “I AM” t-shirt throughout the day to promote visibility and awareness.

12 pm – Red Square

9
OCT

Homecoming Coffee Hour

We welcome back alumni to join in celebrating LGBTQ History Month with an open house during “OUTober.” Come meet current students, and learn about our work.

3 pm – LGBTQ Resource Center

OCT

All Our Families

Join us for a thoughtful and lively conversation with LGBTQ-identified Hoya faculty, staff, and alumni as they talk to us about the joys, challenges, and grace in being parents, and creating new understandings of family.

6 pm – Herman Room, HFSC

20
OCT

The Tipping Point in Trans Popular Culture

Join us for a conversation with Ali Liebegott, one of the writers & actors of the Emmy Award winning show Transparent. The discussion, led by Prof. Marcia Chatelain, will explore the challenges for female and gender queer writers in television and media.

7 pm – Social Room, HFSC

OCT

Trans as Disability in Contemporary Japan

Prof. Karen Nakamura (Yale) will explore how trans activists in Japan have been successful in presenting trans as a form of disability. She examines the power of “gender identity disability” as a source of social and legal change in post-war Japan.

6 pm – Leavey Program Room

24
OCT

Walk to End HIV

Take part in the annual walk and 5k fundraiser for Whitman-Walker Health. DC has 1 in 20 adults with HIV and 1 in 4 who don't know their status.
